ICKENHAM FESTIVE COMMUNITY NIGHT 2026

The Festival Team is now working towards our next Festive Community Night. This will take place on Friday 11th December from 6pm to 9pm.

We plan to have music, food and entertainment on the streets - perhaps you can contribute. There will be stalls inside the Village Hall and Guide Hut, offering seasonal games and sales. We expect that St Giles' Church and URC will once again be staging their Christmas events on the same night. Many shops will stay open late, offering seasonal hospitality. They very much appreciate your support on the night.

We are working to put up the traditional Christmas lights above the shops, and illuminating the tree by the pond. The lights are funded by Ickenham Festival, LBH and local shops and businesses.

Festive Night is a super opportunity for you to promote your favourite group, cause, sport or hobby. You can find booking forms on our website, or get in touch with Ickenham Festival to let us know what you plan so that we can support you.

On the night we always have a need for extra help and stewarding. If you can spare an hour please do work with us, either setting-up or running the evening. To help with set-up, please contact us beforehand, or come down to the Village Hall any time from 5pm on the 11th. It's a good night to wander around the Village and chat to people and businesses. Watch our website and Facebook page for further details of the night.

As always, we want to hear from you. What do you want from YOUR Festival? What new things could be done in 2027 and beyond? You can get in touch through our website IckenhamFestival.org.uk or our Facebook page, or call/text us on 07516 984514.

KEEP MOVING ON

Greetings in the name of Christ.

It took me a while to think of what to write about in this article. It was one of those moments when the brain seems to get clogged, and you are simply not sure what to say or where to begin.

As I sat thinking about it, I was reminded of those moments in life when we feel that we have come to the end of the road. You look ahead and see challenges that seem impossible to overcome. Then you look behind and see problems that seem to be chasing you. You find yourself asking, "Where do I go from here?"

Perhaps you have experienced such moments yourself.

As I reflected, I remembered the children of Israel standing in a situation very much like this. Having been delivered from slavery in Egypt and now journeying towards the Promised Land, they suddenly found themselves trapped. There was a raging sea in front of them and the Egyptian army behind them. As far as they could see, there was simply nowhere to go.

They cried out to Moses and, through Moses, God spoke words that must have sounded rather strange in such circumstances:

"Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the Lord will bring you today."

And then came the command to move forward.

What an awkward thing to say when there was literally nowhere to go!

Where do you go when there is no visible road ahead? What do you do when every direction seems blocked? What do you say when your mind feels empty and you do not even know where to begin?

Perhaps you are asking the same questions.

Where do I go when I feel like this?

Where do I turn when there seems to be no way forward?

What do I do when I cannot see a solution?

And the words of Moses seem to ring in my ears again: "Keep moving on."

I have asked myself many times why the future can sometimes feel so uncertain. Why does the road suddenly seem blocked? Why do situations arise when we cannot see how things are going to work out?

But as I reflected on the story of Israel, I was reminded of something important:

God does not need us to see the whole road before we take the next step.

The circumstances were saying, "Stop."

The sea was saying, "You cannot go any further."

Fear was saying, "Turn back."

But God was saying, "Move on."

There was no visible road through the sea. Yet God knew the road was there.

And perhaps that is what God is saying to some of us today.

"Do not be afraid. Stand firm. Trust me. Keep moving on."

Your Minister and Friend,

REV'D WILBERT RUNYARARO SAYIMANI

PRAYING FOR RAIN

I had the privilege of attending Ickenham and Swakeleys Horticultural Society's Autumn Show in September this year.

There was a huge variety of entries on display, and I enjoyed wandering up and down the tables to see the results of people's hard work. It was universally agreed that this had been a challenging year for gardeners, due to the hot temperatures and the severe lack of rain; the impact of these conditions was visible in the produce on the tables.

Another visible sign of our changing climate that struck me this year, was the trees around the village shedding their leaves prematurely. I learned this is an act of self-preservation. That in seasons of drought, when a tree is not getting enough moisture at the roots, it will shed the leaves and branches it cannot sustain.

I think there is so much we can learn from nature, and the Bible often uses creation to tell us about God. In the book of Jeremiah it says this: "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in Him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit."

When I am under stress, as the trees have been this summer, being able to trust God in the midst of it, is like sending my roots into a stream. When I put my trust in God, He sustains me. He takes away my fears and He enables me to continue to bear fruit.

I am praying this Autumn for rain. Natural rain to replenish the earth, and spiritual rain to renew our trust in God, so that whatever we are facing, we can find strength and hope in Him.

REV'D CHRISTINE BRITTON

ICKENHAM & SWAKELEYS HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY AUTUMN SHOW 2026

Summer 2026 will certainly be one that will go down in history as the hottest summer ever recorded. We lived through a series of heatwaves with temperatures rising to 35 degrees on occasion, and drought conditions led to hosepipe bans for us all.

The hot dry summer months meant that the usually late flowering plants had bloomed much earlier in the season, which meant lots were finished earlier too. Gardeners were definitely challenged by the lack of rain and the banning of hosepipes, and our show team were extremely anxious as to what would be left to display at our Autumn Show.

We needn't have worried though, because as ever, Ickenham gardeners pulled out all the stops to fill the Village Hall on Saturday 5th September with fabulous displays of flowers, fruit and vegetables along with some amazing photographic, domestic and brilliant creative junior classes. The hall really was a riot of colour.

We were delighted to welcome some new entrants, many of whom won prizes. Amongst these were some of our local allotmenters who had some fantastic fruit, flowers and vegetables to show. We hope they will encourage some of their fellow growers to join us next time too. Their presence really made all the difference to the Show, and we were delighted to see so many of them.

There were some beautiful Floral Art displays full of glorious autumn colours, along with a class entitled "From the Allotment", which incorporated clever combinations of flowers, fruit and veg.

Our Juniors presented some fantastic entries – the creatures made using fruit and vegetables made all our visitors smile and their baking looked delicious!

We had a photographic display from the Douay Martyrs Catholic School showing us what had been going on in their garden over summer – and they brought some of their produce along to enter in the show, including an amazing pumpkin that was huge! We look forward to seeing what they grow for Spring.

Our Domestic section was very well supported too - lots of jam and chutney this year, with some very unusual flavours. As always there was great competition and camaraderie in the Men's Challenge - Jamaican Ginger Cake this time which caused much discussion and teasing amongst the chaps!

Our photographic classes were very well supported too - it was good to see family members competing against each other and displaying some really beautiful photographs.

As always, there was a lovely atmosphere in the hall as visitors admired the exhibits and enjoyed the ever-popular tea and homemade cakes.

Following the formal judging, prizes were presented by the Rev'd Christine Britton, Rector of St Giles', who praised our community event and our beautiful exhibits.

Trophies for the overall winners throughout the year will be presented at our AGM on 27th November, meanwhile here is a summary of Best in Section for this show:

THE SHOW MUST GO ON!!

Hillingdon Choral Society has been under the inspiring direction of Peter J. Williams for 45 remarkable years. During this time, Peter has shaped the choir into a vibrant and welcoming musical community, known for its commitment to high-quality choral singing and its warm, inclusive spirit.

We are now preparing for a very special occasion: Peter's final concert with the Society is on Saturday, 28th November at Douay Martyrs School, when we will perform Haydn's The Creation. This performance marks the culmination of his extraordinary contribution to the musical life of the choir and the wider community. The Creation was the first concert Peter conducted all those years ago.

And we would love to welcome past members, new members, and singers from other choirs to join us for this memorable event and to celebrate Peter's long and distinguished association with Hillingdon Choral Society.

Join our rehearsals on Monday evenings 7.45 – 9.45 at Ickenham, United Reformed Church as we prepare for this exciting performance.

If you would like to find out more about the Society before committing to the concert, you are warmly invited to attend our Workshop on Saturday 7th November at Ickenham URC. See website or posters for details.

Whether you have sung with us before or are completely new to the Society, you will be made very welcome.

Join us in celebrating 45 years of music-making under Peter J. Williams, and help us give him a truly memorable farewell concert.

Hillingdon Choral Society will continue its musical journey under the baton of Mrs Joan Stubbs.

Join us as we embark in this new exciting phase – singing with us or enjoying our future concerts.

ICKENHAM CHURCHES' HOLIDAY CLUB 2026

Ickenham Churches' Holiday Club was a happy experience again this summer from 27th July to 31st July, with sixty children in attendance from reception to year six, aided in their learning by a large team of teenaged helpers and adults who did everything from fronting talks and songs, supporting groups' projects, and delivering mid-time squash breaks. Held in the United Reformed Church, the week was centred around the theme of 'Showstoppers'.

In the morning there was singing and readings, and the children learnt about a different story from the Bible each day including the Creation, Daniel in the lions' den, and the Nativity [the first of which inspired the youngsters to roam around the URC acting as different animals!] Then, guided by the leaders, the children worked on craft activities such as lion faces, or shields representing the story of David and Goliath. After the lunch break, on Monday everyone designed their own T-shirt to wear and keep, and on later days, older students took part in a range of activities either sports or further crafts such as bracelet making and clay modelling. This year, the Holiday Club team brought back an old tradition of asking the children to fill a tube of smarties with loose change, to be given to our chosen charity which was The Bible Society in memory of Richard Piper who had supported Holiday Club for many years.

The provisional dates for Holiday Club 2027 are Monday 26th to Friday 30th July with sign ups going live on 1st April 2027.

WORLD CINEMA

A fascinating course on World Cinema has only just started here in Ickenham, and you are not too late to join this friendly group!

From late September on a Tuesday morning from 10.15 till 12.45, experienced Film Studies lecturer Dan Williams is holding sessions at the United Reformed Church. Park easily in front of the church, and pick up a coffee on the way through to the Hardwick Room.

The class has been running for some years, and its devoted followers are a mix of real connoisseurs and the just-curious, who want more than just watching a film but a lively discussion on its merits, history and unique angles. Although Dan issues a schedule of films studied, concentrating on two most weeks, he does not expect students to have seen either, as copious clips backed up by academic handouts embrace everybody.

You are warmly invited to join this welcoming group for a free taster session to 'try before you buy'. For more information, contact Siân Brownhill on 07719 721 722.
